Troy City Hall

Present: Bernard O'Hanlon, George Clay, Kim Ingersoll, John Kinion, Stephen Hunter, Sue Johnson, Alderperson Margaret Eversmeyer, Mayor Mark Cross, City Clerk Karen Hotfelder, Park Supervisor Scott Muckermann.

Karen Hotfelder- gave update on status of pool construction. Colors need to be selected for pool and feature colors. The color chosen for bottom of the pool is Alaskan Blue and the contrasting color is Azure. Ocean theme aqua spouts were chosen for spray pool. Primary colors for the water odyssey features will be of Karen's choosing. Lifeguard chairs will be white. Colors for the play structure in the zero entry pool will be blue and yellow. Karen will put on the agenda for the board of alderman to approve the price scale for the pool passes.

Bill Benhardt –informed the board about TRIM grant (Tree Resource Improvement and Maintenance Program) from the Missouri Department of Conservation. The board would need to apply for other grants through the DNR and Cuivre River to use as matching funds for the TRIM grant. Bill is willing to assist the board in forming a master plan concerning park improvements that would be submitted with the grant applications.
